

Section 9

Definitions of Exempt Information

Local Government Act 1972 Schedule 12a

Shropshire and Wrekin Fire and Rescue Authority

Definitions of Exempt Information Local Government Act 1972 Section 100A and Schedule 12A

The public shall be excluded from a meeting during an item of business whenever it is likely, in view of the nature of the business to be transacted or the nature of the proceedings, that, if members of the public were present during that item, confidential information would be disclosed to them in breach of the obligation of confidence.

"Confidential information" means:

- (a) Information furnished to the Authority by a Government department upon terms (however expressed), which forbid the disclosure of the information to the public; and
- (b) Information, the disclosure of which to the public is prohibited by or under any enactment or by the order of a court.

The Authority may by resolution exclude the public from a meeting during an item of business whenever it is likely, in view of the nature of the business to be transacted or the nature of the proceedings, that, if members of the public were present during that item, there would be disclosure to them of exempt information.

Part I Descriptions of Exempt Information: England

- 7 Information relating to any action taken or to be taken in connection with the prevention, investigation, or prosecution of crime

The consideration as to whether or not the above categories are exempt and accordingly should not be disclosed to the public is subject to a public interest test, provided that in all circumstances the public interest in maintaining the exemption outweighs the public interest in disclosing the information.

Note

The above exemptions are subject to qualifications as set out in The Local Government Act 1972, Schedule 12A, part II.
