Report of the Chief Fire Officer

For further information about this report please contact John Redmond, Chief Fire Officer, on 01743 260201 or Sharon Lloyd, Corporate Services Manager, on 01743 260210.

1 Purpose of Report

This report asks the Fire Authority to consider and agree its 2014/15 Scheme for the Payment of Members' Allowances.

2 Recommendations

The Fire Authority is asked to consider and agree:

- a) Its Scheme for Payment of Members' Allowances 2014/15 to take effect from 1 April 2014 (a draft of which is set out at the appendix to this report); and
- b) Whether basic, special responsibility, travel and subsistence allowances increase automatically by the percentage awarded by the National Joint Council (if any) with effect from 1 April 2014.

3 Background

On 1 May 2003 the Local Authorities (Members' Allowances) (England) Regulations 2003 came into force, which required combined fire authorities to establish their own schemes of allowances, so replacing the existing practice whereby Members were paid allowances for their fire authority duties by their constituent authorities.

At its Annual Meeting in July 2003 Shropshire and Wrekin Fire Authority agreed its first Scheme for Payment of Members' Allowances and since then, in accordance with the Regulations, it has agreed a Scheme each year.

4 The 2014/15 Scheme

Under the Regulations referred to in section 3 of this report the Fire Authority is required each year to make a scheme for the payment of allowances to its Members. The proposed wording of the Scheme for 2014/15 is shown at the appendix to this report. No changes to the existing Scheme are recommended with the exception of those set out below.

Section 14 Review of Allowances

Subsection 14.1 states that basic and special responsibility allowances may be reviewed annually based on the National Joint Council for Local Government Services (NJC) annual pay reviews, and any percentage increase applied automatically from that date.

For the year 2013/14, the NJC awarded employees an increase of 1% to take effect on 1 April 2013. Although given the opportunity to apply this percentage increase to the 2013/14 basic and special responsibility allowances for Members, the Fire Authority chose not to do so.

Members are now asked to consider whether any award made by the NJC for the year 2014/15 should be applied to the 2014/15 basic and special responsibility allowances for Members with effect from 1 April 2014. Officers are not yet aware of any developments regarding an NJC award for 2014/15.

Subsection 14.2 provides for an annual review of travel and subsistence allowances, based on the NJC for Local Authority Fire and Rescue Services annual review or other local review. No changes were recommended by the NJC during 2013, nor was there a local review. Again, Members are asked to consider whether any award made by the NJC should be applied to the 2014/15 travel and subsistence allowances for Members with effect from 1 April 2014.

Members may also wish to consider whether the subsistence rates for stays in London are sufficient. The current rates are £140 for bed and breakfast and £11.22 for an evening meal.

Schedule 2 Allowances with effect from 1 April 2014

If the Fire Authority agrees to apply any increases awarded by the NJC, all allowances would, for the time being, remain the same as in 2013/14. Any increases awarded by the NJC would then be applied, when published, with effect from 1 April 2014.

If the Fire Authority agrees that no increases should be applied, the allowances will remain the same as the current allowances, shown at Schedule 2 to the appendix.

5 Financial Comment

Should the Fire Authority agree to increase Members' allowances in accordance with any percentage increase to be awarded by the NJC, there would be a cost implication. It would be possible, however, to contain this cost within the pay and prices contingency.

6 Legal Comment

Under the Local Authorities (Members' Allowances) (England) Regulations 2003 the Fire Authority is required to establish annually a scheme to provide for the payment of a basic annual allowance to each of its Members. That scheme may also provide for the payment of special responsibility allowances and travel and subsistence allowances.

Arrangements for the publication of the scheme shall be made as soon as reasonably practicable after the making or amendment of the scheme.

- d) where the scheme is amended as referred to in (a) above and the term of office and/or the special responsibilities of the Member do not subsist throughout any part of the periods within the year distinguished by the payment of different amounts for these allowances, then the entitlement to the allowances shall be calculated by reference to the proportion the number of days in each such period bears to the number of days in that year.

13. Administration

13.1 The Head of Finance to the Authority shall maintain, on behalf of the Authority, a record of all payments made under this scheme which shall specify in relation to each payment the name of the recipient and the amount and nature of the payment.
