Putting Shropshire's Safety First

Women's Firefighting Taster Day
Sat. 21st February 2015 | 09.30 - 12.00
Oswestry Fire Station

Firefighters do NOT need to be large, burly, macho, super-strong - or male! Shropshire Fire and Rescue Service actively encourages and supports women to join us. Presently we have part-time vacancies. It's good pay, lots of public recognition, and close to home. Women from black and minority ethnic communities are particularly welcome.

If you live or work within 5 minutes of your local fire station in Shropshire, come along to our Taster Day for a 9.30 start and find out more.
